UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	No. CR 09-00869 DLJ

Plaintiff,)
v.)	STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE
)	ORDER REGARDING PRODUCTION OF
GERMAN PACHECO,)	CONFIDENTIAL DISCOVERY
Defendant.)

Plaintiff, by and through its attorney of record, and the defendant, by and through his attorney of record, hereby stipulate and ask the Court to find as follows:

1. A federal grand jury has returned an indictment charging the defendant with possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine.
2. The government believes that the proposed protective order is necessary to preclude some discovery materials, which may contain the identities of potential witnesses and/or cooperating witnesses or information from which those identities may be discovered, from being disseminated among members of the public and to the defendant. Specifically, the

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING
CONFIDENTIAL DISCOVERY

1 government believes that the proposed protective order will greatly reduce the possibility that
2 individuals will misuse discovery materials to identify, intimidate, and/or harm witnesses and/or 3 defendants.

4 3. Defendant and his defense counsel deny that any person would be endangered by 5 the defendant's possession of any discovery material in this matter. The parties agree that no
6 inference should be drawn about the defendant's dangerousness because of his agreement to 7 enter into this stipulation and be subject to the protective order.

8 4. The parties agree that the following conditions, if ordered by the Court, should 9 serve the government's interest in protecting witnesses, defendants, and other members of the 10 community and reduce the risk of retribution against cooperating witnesses by precluding the 11 circulation of these documents and digital media (e.g., CD-ROMs, DVDs, and digital 12 photographs) throughout the prison system and the community, while permitting the defense to 13 obtain discovery required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16 and the United States
14 Constitution. Accordingly, the parties jointly request that the Court order as follows:

15 a. For purposes of this Order, the term "defense team" refers to: (1) the 16 counsel of record for the defendant; (2) defense investigators assisting the defense team with this
17 case; (3) employees of the defense team's law office; and (4) any expert witnesses who may be 18 retained or appointed by the defense team. For purposes of this Order, a term "defense team"
19 does not include the defendant.

20 b. The government is authorized to provide the defense team with discovery
21 required by F.R.Cr.P. 16 and may, in its discretion, designate any discovery produced as 22 "Confidential Discovery" to be governed by the terms of this protective order. The government
23 may designate discovery as confidential by marking such discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL" and 24 shall produce such discovery on a document, CD, or DVD marked "WARNING: CONTENTS
25 SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER. UNAUTHORIZED COPYING OR VIEWING IS 26 SUBJECT TO PUNISHMENT AS CONTEMPT OF COURT."

27 c. The defense team shall not permit anyone, including the defendant, to 28

1 have possession of Confidential Discovery pursuant to this Order other than the defense team.

2 d. The defense team shall not divulge the contents of any Confidential
3 Discovery provided pursuant to this Order to anyone other than the defendant. A defense team
4 member may show Confidential Discovery to the defendant only in the physical presence of a
5 defense team member, and may not permit the defendant to have physical possession of the
6 Confidential Discovery.

7 e. The defense team shall not permit Confidential Discovery provided
8 pursuant to this Order to be outside of the defense team's offices, homes, vehicles, or personal
9 control. The defense team may take Confidential Discovery into a custodial facility to show it to 10 the defendant, but, as explained above, the defense team must maintain physical possession of 11 the Confidential Discovery and may not allow the defendant to have physical possession of the 12 Confidential Discovery.

13 f. In the event that one of the parties files a pleading that references or 14 contains Confidential Discovery or information therefrom, that filing must be made under seal.

15 g. The defense team shall return all Confidential Discovery provided
16 pursuant to this Order to the government fourteen calendar days after any one of the following
17 events, whichever occurs latest in time: dismissal of all charges against the defendant; the 18 defendant's acquittal by court or jury; the conclusion of any direct appeal; the expiration of the 19 time period for filing a motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255; or the district court's ruling on any 20 motion filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. In the event that the defense team has made notes or 21 marks on the Confidential Discovery constituting work product the defense team shall return the
22 materials to the government in a sealed container labeled "WORK PRODUCT-DESTROY."

26 ///

h. After return of the materials, the government may destroy the Confidential Discovery.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
